The Yellow House is a debut novel by Dutch author Jeroen Blokhuis and has been translated by Asja Novak who studied Dutch at UCL.

Set in Arles between August 1888 and December 1889, Jeroen Blokhuis tells the story from van Gogh's point of view, from inside his mind, providing a fresh and revealing look at how this intriguing painter worked.

'Blokhuis describes a Vincent soaked in colour and alcohol akin a just finished painting soaked in oil.' – Literair Nederland

'Vincent van Gogh's desperation and anger are beautifully translated into sentences full of action.' – Vera ter Beest

The brief formal presentation of the first copy will be followed by an informal reception with drinks and canapés.

Entrance is free and please reserve seats by emailing or phoning Holland Park Press:
